

Difference between Criminal and Civil law

1- Introduction

Civil law deals with matters of civil nature like Maintenance, Revenue, Partition. Criminal law deals with deals with criminal matters like murder, Bail. Criminal law is distinguished from Civil law.

2- Meaning of Criminal law

The law of Crimes and their Punishments

9- Functions of Criminal law

- i) Maintaining order
- ii) Resolving dispute
- iii) Protecting individuals

10- Difference between Civil law and Criminal law

- i) Nature of Right infringed

Criminal

Criminal law relates to right of the Public

Civil

Private rights of Private person

2- Definition of Criminal law

a- Marram Webster Dictionary Law deals with Crimes and their Punishments.

3- Philosophy of Criminal law

The philosophy of Criminal law presents the major philosophical issue within criminal law and their relationship to each other.

4- Objects of Criminal law

- i) Enforce different degrees of crimes; ii- Punishments

ii- Remedies

Criminal

Sometimes provides

Some penalty.

Civil

Compensated
St damages

iii- Damages Criminal

Damages must be

Secure by sending

Criminal in jail.

Civil

Damages must be fulfilled
by compensation

iv-

Time Limitation Criminal

Any Time

Civil

The right to file a civil suit

v- Difference in Procedure.

Civil	Criminal
CPC	CrPC
(Code of Civil Procedure)	(Code of Criminal Procedure)
vi- Title of the Case
Civil	Criminal

By the Parties names	By the criminal Parties known as States vs Accused
A versus B
B versus C

Conclusion.